PROUD TO BE CARLISLE COUNTY OWNED AND OPERATED

County Approves Weed Spraying Service to Combat Weed and Grass Season

By Michael Toon
Carlisle Weekly

The February 7, 2012, Carlisle County Fiscal Court report began with the approval of the previous meeting's minutes and the Carlisle County Ambulance report.

Carlisle County Ambulance Service Director Wayne Floyd was away teaching a class, but Josh Glover reported that the ambulance service was running smoothly and Director Floyd was working to get the Medicare services for the ambulance service up and running.

In related ambulance service news Carlisle County Judge Executive Greg Terry reported that he and two other county magistrates will be meeting with officials concerning the closure of the autopsy lab in Madisonville, Kentucky. The closing of the lab in Madisonville would mean that Louisville would be the only location that has an autopsy lab. This means more costs for Western Kentucky counties when transporting subjects for autopsies. Terry hopes that the meeting will stress the need for an autopsy lab in Madisonville.

In the DES/Solid Waste report Missy Rowland reported that she is getting the final figures together on her annual report and that she will be attending classes in Hopkinsville for training on the county's five year plan.

In concluding her report Rowland said that the county will receive two thermal energy cameras with grant money that came in to the county. The funding received was $14,000, but the total cost of the cameras came in at a little over $15,000. The Cunningham Fire Department agreed to pay for half of the difference in the money to acquire one of the cameras.

In the jail report Carlisle County Jailer Ronny Owens reported that there were three inmates in the Ballard County Jail and two in the Hickman County Correctional Facility.

In the road department report a representative from NaturChem was on hand to give a presentation on what services it can provide for Carlisle County's road department. NaturChem is a company that has sprayed roads from Texas to Ohio, eliminating the growth cycles of weeds such as Johnson grass and deterring the growth of regular grasses and weeds that counties spend money to mow each year. Accoring to NaturChem's calculations county road departments spend $100 per mile to mow county roads using bush hogs. Using NatruChem, it will cost the county $60 per mile without the wear and tear on county tractors or bush hogs. The chemicals used to treat the weeds are all US Department of Agriculture regulated and approved and meet the strict guidelines set forth by the EPA. The fiscal court approved NaturChem to treat 100 miles of county roads to see how the program goes and possibly use it on more roads in upcoming years.

In other road department business Road Department Supervisor Jerry Bowman said that the road department vehicles were beginning to nickel and dime the road department with repairs. Judge Executive Greg Terry told Bowman to get some pricing for trucks and come back to the next fiscal court meeting with those prices.

Bowman next reported that work continued on county roads 1217 and 1324, as sand and other debris was removed from the roads. Work also began on the sinkhole, but when work began a road near the sinkhole collapsed and had to be repaired. Bowman and the county are now awaiting word from FEMA in what the next step for the sinkhole is.

In the Carlisle County Sheriffs Department report, Sheriff Steve Perry reported that the humvees were being picked up today and that the sheriff's department has already picked up three Dell Computers, and four tough book laptop computers through the LESO program as well.

In the 911 report, Carlisle County 911 Director Josh Glover reported that the new communications tower will be up and running the first of March. The building that houses the electrical components has been built and now electrical wiring and connection through Jackson Purchase 2-Way Radio will be conducted in the upcoming weeks.

Glover next asked the fiscal court for an additional telephone line in the dispatch center. The new line would be solely dedicated to Air Evac communications. With the current volume of calls incoming on the two lines that the dispatch service currently uses, the third line would be used to contact Air Evac in an emergency. The fiscal court approved the purchase of the third line.

Before adjourning to closed session to discuss personnel, the Carlisle County Fiscal Court approved to help out the Carlisle County Sports League in building a batting cage where the current basketball courts are and building a basketball court where the tennis courts are. Work will also be completed on the dugouts on the field. The funding for the projects will be fronted by the county, with the sports league paying back the money in full.

Farewell to the Greatest Comet

Steve "Moose" Cranor celebrates a Comet District title in 2009 at Fulton County

By Michael Toon
Carlisle Weekly

I'm not good with editorials, I have explained that numerous times. I am really not good with editorials when you have to eulogize someone whom you admired and deeply respected as a person. Steve Cranor is definitely one of those people.

Cranor, best known as "Moose" to all Carlisle County Comet and First Region referees and fans, passed away on Monday afternoon, leaving a void in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.

As word spread on Facebook of Moose's passing, it was amazing the love that everyone showed for a man who has tallied 0 points, 0 rebounds, 0 assists and 0 minutes for the Carlisle County Comets, but yet meant so much to an athletic program and a community and has turned out to be one of the greatest Comets that ever lived.

It got me to thinking, and it reinforced a point that I strongly believe. Greatness is not measured by how many points or rebounds you accumulate, or how much money or materialistic goods that you acquire in life - greatness is about the impact you leave on people's lives while you are living.

In size, Moose's impact on Carlisle County and everyone who knew him left a crater the size of Texas. Moose was a kind man who loved nothing more than to see his Carlisle County Comets and Lady Comets play. He also encouraged and supported generations of Comets and Lady Comets, as he passed along a warm smile or an encouraging word when times got tough for the student athlete.

In his final years Moose battled complications from a broken leg and diabetes. However, that did not stop him from attending his Carlisle County games, as he sat courtside in his wheelchair or hobbled in on crutches. He was that dedicated and loyal to the Comets and Lady Comets.

When speaking with Carlisle County Head Coach Brian O'Neill, he told the Carlisle Weekly that the team will be wearing black bands on their uniforms in honor of their fallen supporter. He also provided this statement for the Carlisle Weekly:

"With the passing of Steve Cranor, a.k.a "Moose", Carlisle County has lost one of its biggest supporters and legends. Moose's love for Kentucky Wildcat basketball, St. Louis Cardinal Baseball, and Los Angeles Lakers basketball was only surpassed for his love of the Comets. For the ones that have been around a while, he was the one in the middle of our cheering section just above the student section hollering at the refs. In his later years, he sat in the corner by the chair seats in a folding chair or in a wheel chair--still encouraging the players as they went by him. He went to all the basketball, volleyball, baseball, and softball games that he could physically go to--getting rides from whoever would take him. He even rode on the team bus a few times, but that was just the type of guy Moose was. He went to so many ball games that about 10 years ago, the school honored him and gave him a lifetime pass to all Carlisle County home events.

Moose was not only a steadfast supporter, but a friend. He was always ready and willing to talk about the Wildcats, the Cardinals, and Comet basketball with me--and whoever else he could get in a conversation. He was a sport stats machine! It seemed like he knew a little something about everything. He also loved to play cards with his friends and would play wherever and with whomever, because that was the type of guy Moose was. He always had his head up, smile on, and had a kind word or hello to say to everybody--regardless of how bad his health was.

As one of my players told me yesterday when we heard the news of his passing at practice, "I have never played a game in this gym where Moose was not here to watch me". Even my eight and 11 year old nephews were upset because Moose would never get to watch them play. It will definitely be a change not to look over and see Moose hollering during a heated game with Hickman County. Even Facebook and the internet were covered with posts about Moose, his loyalty, and kindness. He would never have believed the outpouring of words about him. He just did what he liked to do and went through life just happy to be where the Comets were. He was just unassuming, genuine, and dedicated---that's just the type of guy Moose was," O'Neill said.

Carlisle County Lady Comet Head Coach Ember Wright told the Carlisle Weekly that is wasn't uncommon to see Moose at practices. "Moose may possibly have been the most dedicated Comet fan, because he was a fan of ALL Comet sports. As a player, I remember he would always yell at the officials. However, over the several years as the Lady Comet coach, I've had the opportunity to get to know him. Moose would often arrive to the gym early for a middle school game, or a night the boys played and we did not. He would always ask about the girls, comment on a recent game or say, "I came early just to watch practice". Moose was a true Comet supporter and will be missed by many," Wright said.

Korie Bowles, the voice of the Carlisle County Comets and a former Comet himself, said that Moose represented what the Comet program stands for."Moose was a great friend that represented Carlisle County for what we are known best for -Loyalty, Dedication, and being a friend with everyone. He will be greatly missed," Bowles stated.

The Carlisle Weekly extends its deepest sympathies to the family of Steve "Moose" Cranor ,and will never forget the love, kindness and dedication that he showed to the community and the youth of Carlisle County.

Carlisle County Sheriff's Department Report

The Carlisle County Sheriff's Department responded to an auto collision on February 2, 2012, at 5:20 p.m. Christopher Dierker ran a stop sign on county road 1016 when Kyle Ballard, who was travelling northbound on KY 307, struck Mr. Dierker in the side of his vehicle. Carlisle County EMS responded to the scene, but no injuries were reported, nor were charges filed.

The Kentucky State Police and Carlisle County Sheriff's Department responded to a burglary in progress at the Davis' Apartments in Millburn, Kentucky, behind the old bank building. When law enforcement officials arrived the subject fled from the scene. Nothing was taken from the scene, but a photo lineup will be shown to a witness for identification of the guilty party.

In a final bit of sheriff's department news, Carlisle County Sheriff Steve Perry received reports of mailboxes being shot at on county road 1371. Two mailboxes were damaged and the projectiles that missed the mailboxes hit the houses that were behind the mailbox. Guilty parties could face wanton endangerment 1st degree charges, which could land them in the penitentiary. The Carlisle County Sheriff's Department encourages citizens to call 628-3377 if you have any tips on these cases and all informants will remain confidential.

USDA Announces CRP General Sign-up Landowners and Producers Will Have Four Week Window Beginning in March to Enroll

Lexington KY, February 6, 2012– The Farm Service Agency (FSA) State Executive Director, John W. McCauley, announced that the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) will conduct a four-week Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) general signup. This CRP signup will begin on March 12, 2012 and end on April 6, 2012. CRP has a 25-year legacy of successfully protecting the nation's natural resources, while providing significant economic and environmental benefits to rural communities across the United States.

CRP is a voluntary program available to agricultural producers to help them use environmentally sensitive land for conservation benefits. Producers enrolled in CRP plant long-term, resource-conserving covers to improve the quality of water, control soil erosion and develop wildlife habitat. In return, USDA provides participants with rental payments and cost-share assistance. Contract duration is between 10 and 15 years. Producers with expiring contracts and producers with environmentally sensitive land are encouraged to evaluate their options under CRP. Producers also are encouraged to look into CRP's other enrollment opportunities offered on a continuous, non-competitive, signup basis.

Offers for CRP contracts are ranked according to the Environmental Benefits Index (EBI). USDA's Farm Service Agency (FSA) collects data for each of the EBI factors based on the relative environmental benefits for the land offered. Each eligible offer is ranked in comparison to all other offers and selections made from that ranking. FSA uses the following EBI factors to assess the environmental benefits for the land offered:

- Wildlife habitat benefits resulting from covers on contract acreage;
- Water quality benefits from reduced erosion, runoff and leaching;
- On-farm benefits from reduced erosion;
- Benefits that will likely endure beyond the contract period;
- Air quality benefits from reduced wind erosion; and Cost.

For more information on CRP and other FSA programs, visit a local FSA service center or go online at www.fsa.usda.gov.

The Kingdom Within

"The kingdom of God cometh not with observation: neither shall they say, lo here or lo there! For behold, the kingdom of God is within you." (Luke 17:20b-21)

In Acts 1:6 the apostles ask Jesus if He would at this time restore the kingdom to Israel. Their understanding of the kingdom was still limited until the day of Pentecost when the Holy Ghost opened their understanding. They were looking for the kingdom to come naturally as it was in the days of King David. So it is today that many people can only comprehend a kingdom if they can see the king. Kingdom means the King's domain or the king's dominion. In other words, it is the area that a king rules over including the subjects within that domain.

In Matt. 13: 13:44-46 Jesus explains that the kingdom of heaven is like treasure hid in a field that is so valuable a man would sell all he has to obtain the treasure. Again it is as a man seeking for goodly pearls and having found one pearl of great price, sold all to buy it. Simply put, the kingdom of God is of great value, more valuable than anything else and is to be desired and sought for accordingly.

Col. 1:13 tells us that we, born again believers have been delivered from the power of darkness and translated into the kingdom of God's dear son Jesus. That puts us in the kingdom of heaven and also puts the kingdom in us. For where the king lives is His domain. "Christ In us, the hope of glory." (Col. 1:27) "Greater is He that is in us than he that is in the world."(I John 4:4) "If any man have not the spirit of Christ, he is none of His."(Rom. 8:9)

To withhold territory from the king is an act of treason. The king is to have dominion over everything in His kingdom. To be double hearted and forked tongue is to rebel against the King.Jesus showed us this in the story of the people, who sent word to the king saying, we will not have this man rule over us, the response was death. (Luke 19:11-27)To yield to and submit brings life. With the life within comes the ability to unlock the kingdom within.

When we are born again we are acting on the measure of faith God has given to every person. Then we begin to live on the faith of the son of God. (Gal. 2:20) As we feed on God's Word, faith comes and faith pleases God. All things are possible to them that believe!

As we feast on God's Word, we build life and power within us. (Hebrews 4:12-13) This along with faith will activate the ability of God within to operate in us and in our lives.

Ephesians 3:20 states that God is able to do exceedingly, abundantly, above all we ask or think. No one would argue with that, but it goes on to say this ability of God is determined by the power that worketh in us.

Phil 2:13 states that it is God working in us both to will and to do of His good pleasure. God works only by faith and His word. The children of Israel limited God's ability to do all He wanted to do by their unbelief and acts of rebellion. If we follow the same course, so will we.

We have been given the keys to the kingdom within us. We can lock it up or we can unlock it so all the goodness of God can flow freely in our lives. "He that spared not His own son but delivered Him up for us all, how shall he not with Him also freely give us all things." (Romans 8:32)

By unlocking the kingdom within there is a restoring of the kingdom of God In His people.

ONE PRESSON'S VIEW

By Kay Presson

What do we take for granted? And, who do we take for granted? When we flip on a light switch, we expect lights to come on. Our friends and family, we also take for granted, for this is a human condition. My theory is this: we grow to depend on people, on material possessions. Early in life, we learn who and what we can trust. Thus, when things are running smoothly, we tend to take things for granted.

Unfortunately, bad things do happen to good people and through the encouragement of friends and family, we survive, don't we?! For, just because something bad happens to someone, it does not mean they have brought it on themselves. Valentine's Day is approaching, the day of "love." This Valentine's Day, why not make it a day to show our appreciation to others who have encouraged us? The friendly wave of other drivers, a smile from other shoppers will, quite possibly, be remembered, and could be the encouragement someone needs to face their day, their life.

This week's inspiration

This week's inspiration from scripture verses Isaiah 40:21-31, Mark 1:29-38: Are you being drained? Are you failing to see what's really important? Are you feeling overwhelmed? Jesus always leaves His work to spend some time alone with God – a time of strengthening, a time to have His soul restored, a time to be re-attached to the Father. Are you spending enough time with the Father? Jesus always went to a quiet place to speak with God. God knows that we will grow faint and weary and that we need our souls restored. We need to focus on what's really important and recognize the devil's attempts to steal our much needed 'quiet' time with God.

Financial Aid Tip of the Month, February 2012 State Offers Several Student Aid Programs

Kentucky students who choose to attend an in-state college or technical school may qualify for financial aid programs administered by the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority (KHEAA).

Kentucky's need-based programs include the College Access Program (CAP) Grant and Kentucky Tuition Grant (KTG). CAP grants may be used at all of Kentucky's public and private colleges. KTG awards may be used at Kentucky's private colleges. Students may apply for the CAP and KTG programs by completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) online at www.fafsa.gov.

Perhaps the best known program is the merit-based Kentucky Educational Excellence Scholarship (KEES). Students attending certified Kentucky high schools earn college scholarships based on their yearly grade point average and their best ACT score. High school students who qualify for the free or reduced-price lunch programs may also earn additional KEES money by scoring well on Advanced Placement or International Baccalaureate exams. Home school and GED graduates may earn KEES awards based on their ACT scores.

Students do not need to apply for a KEES award. If they attend a participating Kentucky college, KHEAA will automatically send the scholarship money to the college after the school reports that the student is attending classes.

KEES, CAP and KTG are funded by Kentucky Lottery revenues.

KHEAA also administers the Osteopathic Medicine Scholarship, the Coal County Scholarship for Pharmacy Students and the Early Childhood Development Scholarship. Students may apply online for these scholarships through Zip Access on www.kheaa.com.

To find links to other useful education websites, go to www.gotocollege.ky.gov. For more information about Kentucky scholarships and grants, visit www.kheaa.com; write KHEAA, P.O. Box 798, Frankfort, KY 40602; or call 800-928-8926, ext. 6-7372.

Moran Becomes First Lady Comet in 12 Years to Eclipse 1,000 Points

Macy Moran joined the 1,000 point club on Saturday night

By Michael Toon
Carlisle Weekly

Coming into Saturday night's contest against Community Christian Academy Macy Moran, junior guard of the Carlisle County Lady Comets, needed 19 points to eclipse the 1,000 point mark in her career. If Moran was able to complete the feat, she would be the first Lady Comet to hit the mark since her coach; Ember Wright did it in 2000.

On Saturday the challenge was accepted and met, as Moran scored 26 points in a 67-46 rout of the Lady Warriors. For Moran, a junior, the 1,000 point mark is a rarity for a Comet athlete at such an early point in their career. On the guys' side of the 1,000 point club, Kurt Martin and Caleb Hardy are the only two Comets to reach the 1,000 point mark as juniors.

Moran began her varsity career as an 8th grader, scoring 158 points, then, 270 as a freshman, 268 as a junior and 311 points thus far as a junior.

Lady Comet Head Coach Ember Wright, and the last Lady Comet to reach 1,000 points, said that Macy scoring 1,000 points was one that she saw coming in Macy's eighth grade year. "As a coach, I was very impressed with her ability to score at the middle school level, and sought out a way to bring her up to the varsity level, where she was also successful. She began playing some major minutes at the varsity level at Trigg Christmas Tournament, where she was named to the All Tournament team, and helped the team to finish second. She finished her year as an 8th grader with 158 points at the varsity level, and was voted onto the 1st District Team. It was at this point that I told a few people, "She'll be the next Lady Comet to score 1000 points," Wright said.

Wright's prediction came to fruition on what was possibly the best night of Moran's high school career. Moran nailed a three pointer from the left wing that kicked off a scoring rampage from the junior. In Moran's 26 points she went 9/11 from two point range, ½ from the three point line and 5/8 from the free throw line.

Wright said that it was an honor to present Moran with the 1,000 point basketball after the game."Saturday night, I was very excited to present Macy with the 1000 point basketball, not only as her coach but also as the last Lady Comet to reach this milestone in 2000. It has been an honor to coach Macy these past 3 1/2 years, and I look forward to another great year with Macy," Wright said.

When speaking with Moran, she said that her scoring 1,000 would not have been possible without the people who helped her along the way. "This would have never been possible without the help of my friends, family and coaches. They are behind me every step of the way, pushing me and making sure that I am giving 100%. As a middle school basketball player I always thought it was so cool to be able to say that you scored 1,000 points, but never really thought that it would happen but with hard work and dedication you can achieve just about anything you want to," Moran said. Macy Moran is the daughter of Kevin and Shanea Moran of Cunningham, Kentucky.
